THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND COOPERATION IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE (SHRI SHYAM LAL YADAV): (a) At present, there is no suitable substitute cheaper than rice bran which can be used as poultry feed.

(b) Approximate 50 per cent of rice bran is being utilized for extraction of oil.

Constitution of the Bachawat Wage Board

284. SHRI NARESH C. PUGLIA: Will the Minister of LABUR be pleased to state:

(a) when the Bachawat Wage Board was constituted with detail of the functioning of the Board;

(b) whether the Board has completed the report on wages of journalists and non-journalists; if so, what are the details thereof and if not, reasons therefor;

(c) what was the number of Board sittings held since its constitution and by when it is likely to finalise the report;

(d) whether Government have extended the period of the Board; and

(e) if so, what are the details in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI BINDESHWARI DUBEY): (a) Two Wage Boards—one for Working Journalists and the other for Non-journalists were set up on 17-7-1985 for fixation and revision of wages of the Working Journalists and Non-Journalists, with terms of reference as set out in the Annexures. See Appendix CXLVIII. Annexure Nos. 13A and 13B. Mr. Justice (Retd.) U.N. Bhachawat took over as Chairman of the two Boards on 1-8-1985.

(b) The Wage Boards have not yet submitted their reports. The Wage Boards have not been able to complete their work.

(c) In all, the Boards have held 45 sittings, extending over 127 days. In his last-received request for extension of his term beyond 31-8-1988 (the date upto which his extended term was sanctioned) the Chairman indicated that he would endeavour to complete the work by 31-12-1988.

(d) and (e) The Govt. is yet to take a final view on the request by the Chairman for an extension of his term.
